

Updated 07/19/2018

The U.S. Military HIV Research Program (MHRP) seeks a candidate for qn open positions in its dynamic Data Coordination and Analysis Center (DCAC). DCAC provides data collection, management, processing and analytic support to a wide portfolio of research projects executed by MHRP and affiliated organizations, including observational and interventional studies in the United States, Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, Mozambique, Nigeria, Liberia, and Ghana.

Open position includes:

Lead Research Analyst/Director: <http://careers.hjf.org/jobs/6738043-lead-research-analyst>

This position offers great opportunities for talented early- and mid-career epidemiologists or biostatisticians to join a staff of programmers, data management specialists, and research analysts to support MHRP's work investigating HIV and other infectious diseases.

Please visit <http://www.hivresearch.org> for more information about MHRP and <http://careers.hjf.org> for more information about this and other job openings.